NEW! WINTER ADVENTURERS DAY CAMPS IN KARS AND MANOTICK

KARS and MANOTICK, January 9, 2012 — The great outdoors is the place to be this winter with the Rideau Valley Conservation Authority's two outstanding Winter Adventurers Day Camps. Don't spend the next school PA day cooped up indoors — it is time to get outside and enjoy all that winter has to offer.

Children, aged six to 12, are invited to spend a day with Rideau Valley Conservation Authority (RVCA) interpreters and learn how to snowshoe, erect shelters, build campfires, cook outdoor and orienteer. Add a few great outdoor games to the mix and the day will be complete!

"It's time for us to stop hibernating," says Andrea Wood, Baxter Conservation Area Interpreter. "We'll introduce some great outdoor skills and games and help children appreciate the season."

Join the fun at one of two local dates. The camp is $40 per child and includes snowshoe rental, snacks and the traditional reward of a frothy hot chocolate after a day of winter fun. There is a maximum of 20 participants so register early.
