

Sommer Casgrain-Robertson suggested that, with the addition of two new Executive Committee members, additional training should be scheduled. This training would likely include Section 28 staff and RVCA's solicitor, Helmut Brodmann. A mock Hearing and a question and answer period could be added to the session.

While noting that an in-person training session would be preferable, Sommer Casgrain-Robertson confirmed that Covid-19 restrictions would be the determining factor.

Staff will poll participants to determine a suitable date in July.
